Zee is an experienced family lawyer. Her experience ranges from complex property settlement litigation matters to contested children matters, including relocation matters.

Whilst Zee mainly practices within family law, what sets Zee apart from other family lawyers, is the significant experience she has acquired within commercial law, including commercial dealings, civil litigation, property law, debt recovery as well as her experience in some criminal law matters. Zee's Court experience ranges from the Federal Courts to the Supreme Court of NSW, Court of Appeal of NSW and the Local and District Court of NSW.

Zee's commercial background, with respect to property settlement proceedings, has no doubt assisted her in matters in which Zee's client's opponent have attempted to conceal or dispose of their assets or have otherwise failed to make full and frank disclosure. Put simple, Zee enjoys a scavenger hunt in discovering undisclosed assets for her clients and has done this successfully on several occasions.

Zee's background in criminal law has assisted her in contested children matters. Zee has found this experience useful in representing clients with a criminal record or an Apprehended Domestic Violence Order.

Whilst Zee has the necessary experience and knowledge to conduct family law litigation matters, Zee prefers to achieve a negotiated settlement for her clients. This, in Zee's view, is what is in her client's best interest.

On a personal note, Zee describes herself as a fearless competitor and a self-proclaimed 'sore loser'. Zee's hobbies include boxing, running (yes,
